DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference characters "54" (in figure 1B) and "64" (in figure 2) have both been used to designate the retainer or pin. Examiner notes that claim 10 sets forth that the retainer is defined by the pin. Clarification is required. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the limitation of the pawl assembly coacting with the actuator for retaining the actuator in a rotational position relative to the axis as recited in claims 1 and 4 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.84(h)(5) because Figure 2 filed on 6/17/05 is completely different from figure 2 originally filed. The drawings show(s) modified forms of construction in the same view. Examiner has attached copies of both figure 2 replacement and figure 2 original. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

4. In addition to Replacement Sheets containing the corrected drawing figure(s), applicant is required to submit a marked-up copy of each Replacement Sheet including annotations indicating the changes made to the previous version. The marked-up copy must be clearly labeled as "Annotated Sheets" and must be presented in the amendment or remarks section that explains the change(s) to the drawings. See 37 CFR 1.121(d)(1). Failure to timely submit the proposed drawing and marked-up copy will result in the abandonment of the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1-13 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 1 and 4 (and paragraph [007] in the specification) include the limitation of the pawl assembly coacting with the actuator for retaining the actuator in a rotational position relative to the axis. See the last two lines of the claims. Examiner notes that in the drawings the pawl assembly appears to prevent relative rotation with respect to the axis. Also claim 14 recites that the pawl assembly prevents relative rotation of the actuator about the axis.

Examiner understands that when the pawl assembly is disconnected from the Actuator, the actuator is capable of rotating with respect to the axis, however, at the point of disconnection, the pawl assembly is not coacting with the actuator to retain it.

Clarification is required.

The remaining claims are rejected due to their dependency from claims 1 and 4.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-13 and 19 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

8. Claims 14-17 are allowed. Lavelly shows the complementary engaging means between the outside of the end of the worm and the inside of the actuator including complementary engaging splines. The independent claims require that the complementary engaging means comprise helical teeth. It would not have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the complementary engaging splines to include complementary engaging helical teeth since it would destroy the arrangement in which relative rotation between the end of the worm and the actuator of Lavelly is prevented.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 10/26/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Lavelly reads on the limitations as amended in claim 18 and as recited in new claim 20 as set forth above. Accordingly, the rejections have been maintained. Examiner recommends incorporating the language --including a slot that is elongated in a direction generally parallel with said axis-- in lines 7-8 of claim 18 to preclude the use of the dimensions of the diameter of the slot of Lavelly. Examiner also notes that the drawing objection of the previous office action is maintained since the replacement sheet of figure 2 filed 6/17/05 appears to be completely different from that originally filed. See exhibit A – originally filed figure 2 and exhibit B – replacement figure 2 filed 6/17/05.

Response to Amendment

10. Examiner has incorporated new rejections not necessitated by the amendment, therefore, the finality of the last action is withdrawn.
